

SMITHSONIAN

CONTENIDO

VOLUMEN 41, No. 7, NOVEMBER 2010

FEATURES

- 38     Resurrecting the Czar.
In Rusia the recent discovery of the remains of the two missing Romanov children has pitted science against the church.
Joshua Hammer.
Photographs by Kate Brooks.
- 50     Male Bonding.
A long-term study in Namibia points up bull elephants' surprisingly rich relationships.
Caitlin O'Connell-Rodwell.
Photographs by Susan McConnell.
- 60     The tell-Tale Murder.
The mysterious death of a wealthy slave trader in Salem, Mass., riveted the nation in the 1830s—and figures in now-classic works of American fiction.
E. J. Wagner.
Illustrations by Chris Beatrice.
- 70     Show Time.
A stellar roster of African-American singers, dancers celebrating its 75-years history.
Lucinda Moore.
- 76     Looking for Ghosts.
To study one of the universe's most elusive particles, physicists have built detectors in gold mines, mountain tunnels, even Antarctic ice.
Ann Finkbeiner.
- 82     How Little Bighorn Was Won.
A new book offers a vivid, minute-by-minute account of the 1876 battle from the victors' perspective.
Thomas Powers.
Photographs by Aaron Huey.

DEPARTMENTS

- 5     From the Editor.
Reconsiderations.
- 8     Letters.

“So Where you From?”

10

Indelible Images.

ON TO WARSAW.

An American photographer recorded the first devastation of World War II.
Mike Edwards.

13

Wild Things.

PARACHUTING CATERPILLARS.

17

My Kind of Town.

TWICE CHARMED.

The novelist finds Portland, Oregon, as compelling today as in her youth.
Katherine Dunn.

22

Your Smithsonian.com

CAÑON CITY, COLORADO.

24

This Month in History.

TACOMA NARROWA BRIDGE.

27

Around the Mall.

Testing the Hope Diamond.

28 From the Castle.

Big Opportunity.

32 The Object at Hand.

JFK'S Cane.

34 Q&A “Sully” Sullenberger.

36 What's Up.

The Art of Wood.

108

The Last Page.

Fluent in 60 Seconds.

ON THE COVER

A young bull elephant in Namibia gazes warily at observes in a concrete bunker.

Photograph by Susan McConnell.