

THE SCIENTIST

CONTENIDO

VOLUMEN 26 No. 2, FEBRUARY 2012

FEATURES

- 34 The Enigmatic Membrane.
Despite years of research, the longstanding mystery of where the autophagosome gets its double lipid bilayers is not much clearer.
Muriel Mari, Sharon A. Tooze, and Fulvio Reggiori.
- 40 The War Within.
Unraveling the molecular causes of acute pancreatitis — a potentially deadly disease in which the pancreas essentially digests itself — is yielding clues to how it might be treated.
Ole H. Petersen, Oleg V. Gerasimenko, and Julia V. Gerasimenko.
- 45 Casting a Wide Eye.
Scientists study a variety of large-scale biological phenomena from the vantage point of space
Cristina Luiggi.

DEPARTMENTS

- 12 From the Editorial
On the Menu.
Digestion on the cellular level; two mysteries examined.
Mary Beth Aberlin.
- 17 Notebook
Genghis Jon; Sweet and Sour Science; Science Afield; Reading Tea Leaves.
- 26 Thought Experiment.
Ready for Prime Time.
Biomarkers of Alzheimer's disease are ready for widespread use in clinical trials.
Dennis J. Selkoe and John C. Morris.
- 29 Critic at Large.
Never Say Never.
Novel observations can sometimes be correct for unexpected reasons.
H. Steven Wiley.
- 30 Critic at Large.
Learning by Doing.
Having freshmen perform research doesn't just improve undergraduate learning, it convinces more students to become science majors.

Sarah L. Simmons.

- 33 Modus Operandi.
Switching the Bait.
Turning a standard technique into an unbiased screen for diagnostic biomarkers.
Edyta Zielinska.
- 52 The Literature
ER tubules play role in mitochondrial division; parasites degrade proteasomes to feed themselves; macrophage role in body temperature regulation.
- 55 Scientist to Watch.
Rommie Amaro.
Tia Ghose.
- 56 Lab Tools
Little Squirts.
A road map to liquid-handling solutions on the market.
Amy Maxmen.
- 59 Careers
Female Frontrunners.
How to successfully surmount the challenges women face in becoming biotech industry leaders.
Jef Akst.
- 70 Reading Frames.
Killing with Kindness.
Studying the evolution of altruistic behaviors reveals how knee-jerk good intentions can backfire.
Barbara Oakley et al.
- Capsule Reviews.
Bob Grant.
- 72 Foundations.
Botanical Blueprints, circa 1843.
Cristina Luiggi.
- IN EVERY ISSUE
- 11 Contributors
- 14 Speaking of Science.
- 64 The Guide.
