

PUBLIC UNDERSTANDING OF SCIENCE

CONTENIDO

VOLUMEN 19 No. 1, JANUARY 2010

ARTICLES

- 3 Editorial
Martin W. Bauer.
- 5 Framing of science issues in opinion-leading news: International comparison of biotechnology issue coverage.
Thomas Listerman.
- 16 Negotiating uncertainty: Asteroids, risk and the media.
Felicity Mellor.
- 34 Marginal voices in the media coverage of controversial health interventions: How do they contribute to the public understanding of science?
M. Hivon, P. Lehoux, J-L. Denis, & M. Rock.
- 52 Marvellous medicines and dangerous drugs: The representation of prescription medicine in the UK newsprint media.
Helen Prosser.
- 70 The gap between scientists and journalists: The case of mercury science in Québec's press.
Marie-Ève Maillé, Johanne Saint-Charles, & Marc Lucotte.
- 80 Making a small country count: Nanotechnology in Danish newspapers from 1996 to 2006.
Rikke Schmidt Kjaergaard.
- 98 GM food in the news: Media representations of the GM debate in the UK.
Martha Augoustinos, Shona Crabb, & Richard Shepherd.
- 115 Scientists are talking, but mostly to each other: A quantitative analysis of research represented in mass media.
Julie Suleski & Motomu Obaraki.

BOOK REVIEW