

ANIMATION MAGAZINE

CONTENIDO

VOLUME 25, No. 4 JUNE 2011

FRAME-BY-FRAME

2 Books We Love.

FEATURES

4 Mr. Lasseter's Wild Ride.

John Lasseter and his A- Team at Pixar up the ante for Lighting MC Queen, Mater and the rest of their four-wheel buddies in the summer's highly anticipated sequel. Cars 2.

Thomas J. McLean.

8 Return of the Kung Fu Beast from the East.

Director Jennifer Yuh Nelson reveals how Dream Works is bringing back Po and the Furious Five for a 3-D rematch in Kung Fu Panda 2.

Mercedes Milligan.

12 A Superbe Year for French Animation.

A Record number of top-notch animated movies are slated to be released in France. Is it just coincidence or a sign of things to come?

TELEVISION

16 Gumball Begins Reign of Color.

Cartoon Network Europe's hot new series serves up the adventures of an animated sitcom family with amazing serve and visual pizzazz.

Ramin Zahed.

20 Timmy Turner Comes to Life!

Butch Hartman and his Fairly OddParents team deliver a zany live action movie adaptation of the global Nickelodeon hit phenom.

Ramin Zahed.

22 Mondo-TV's Triple Treat at Licensing Show.

23 A Classic Tale Gets s 21st Century Reboot.

DQ Entertainment prepares a 3-D CG-animated version of Edith Nesbit's family classic, Five Children and It.

HOME ENTERTAINMENT

- 28 New Summer Discs Turn Up the Heat.
Whether you're craving superheroes, '90s nostalgia or some heavy metal, new DVD and Blu-ray sets will help you ride out bikini season.
Mercedes Milligan.

Licensing

- 30 2011 Licensing Wish List.
A quick run-down of what to expect from top toon franchises at this year's Licensing International Expo held in Las Vegas, June 14-16.
- 32 A Day in the Life.
Max Porter and Ru Kuwahata of Brooklyn's Tiny Inventions take us behind the scenes of their distinctive animated projects.