

ANIMATION MAGAZINE

CONTENIDO

VOLUME 25, No. 7 OCTOBER 2011

FRAME-BY-FRAME

- 6 October Animation Planner.... Books We Love.

FEATURES

- 10 The Dark Knight rewinds.
Warner Bros. delivers a striking new animated feature focusing on Bruce Wayne's first year as Batman.
Thomas J. McLean.
- 12 A Fin-de- Siècle Fantasy.
Dream Works veteran Bibo Bergeron goes back to his French roots with A Monster in Paris, an elegant CG-animated feature set in 1910.
Ramin Zahed.
- 14 Roaming Deeper into The Lion King.
Disney's beloved classic gets a stereoscopic 3-D makeover and theatrical release in advance of its October Blu-ray release.
Ramin Zahed.

Television

- 16 Gods of Animation Smile at MTV.
The cabler toons up its schedule with new episodes of Mike Judge's beloved Beavis and Butt-Head and the premiere of the surfer show Good Vibes.
Thomas J. McLean.
- 18 Marooned with Children.
Breakthrough's new animated series Crash Canyon puts a clever spin on the dysfunctional family sitcom scenario.
Ramin Zahed.
- 20 Rodents, Veggies and Space Travelers.
Toronto's hot 3D animation house ToonBox moves to a new studio and launches three big projects for various platforms.
- 22 Fox Strives for Flippin' Good TV.
Fox-TV's new animation lineup sees the awkward teens of Napoleon Dynamite get a toon makeover, and Johan Hill as a sophisticated schoolboy in Allen Gregory.

Mercedes Milligan.

- 24 Lost in Cyberspace.
Five adventurous teens find themselves traveling through the internet in Gruppo Alcini's promising new animated series, which is showcased at Cartoon Forum this month.
Ramin Zahed.
- 26 A Very Natural Heroine.
The team at French studio Millimages is working on a visually arresting 3-D series based on the classic book property Caroline and Her Friends.
Ramin Zahed.
- 28 Euro Toons Parade in Poland.
Sixty-six new animated properties fight for buyer and funding attention at the 22nd edition of Cartoon Forum in Sopot.
- 30 Meet Mr. Robinson.
Longtime Ottawa Animation Festival director Chris Robinson tells us about how he and his team put together a world-class, kick-ass toon event.
- 32 How I Stopped Worrying and Learned to Love CG.
Veteran animator and supervising director of Star Wars: The Clone Wars discusses the digital evolution of his job.
David Filoni.
- 36 Catching Up with Josh Selig.
Little Airplane's founder and president talks about his two new preschool series, Small Potatoes and 3rd & Bird, which will both premiere on Disney Channel's Junior block this month.
Ramin Zahed.

HOME ENTERTAINMENT

- 39 Autumn Chillers and Charmers on Disc.
Dumbo, Danny Phantom, Vash the Stampede and two spooky DreamWorks specials are this month's entertainment options for a cozy fall night.
Mercedes Milligan.
- 48 A Day in the Life of...
The fun-loving (and hard-working) team at Spanish audiovisual production house 737 Shaker show us how they put some jiggle into Vodka Capital's musical CG series Jelly Jamm.