

AMERICAN PHOTO

CONTENIDO

VOLUME 24 No. 5, SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2012

FEATURES

- 28 Witness for the World
Ruth Gruber and the shocking photos she made of the Exodus 1947.
Ruth Gruber.
- 36 They Shot the President
How five masters approached the most difficult subject in America: Its commander in chief.
Michael Kaplan.
- 48 About Face
Richard Avedon's remarkable journey from shooting fashion and fine art to immortalizing the prime movers of politics.
Will Blythe.
- 56 Taking It to the Streets
The year's most impactful protest photography.
The Staff of American Photo.

On the Cover

For this month's intentionally divisive cover, expert photomanipulator Jesse Lenz showed us how the same photo can be pushed in two radically different directions. We hope it pushed your buttons.

DEPARTMENTS

- 10 Editor's Note
Another Face.
Introducing our own world star.
Miriam Leuchter.

Focus

- 13 One to Watch
Still Life With Newt.

Newcomer to the campaign trail Josh Haner breathes fresh life into the same old photo ops.

Josh Robertson.

16

Alternate Take

Change for a 10.

A cadre of photojournalists builds a visual record of the 21st century's untold stories.

Michelle Bogre.

20

Books

Ghosts of Tom Joad.

When the government made great art; scenes from an internment camp; the White House in pictures; the face of modern Communism.

Jack Grager.

24

On the Wall

Renaissance Man.

ICP salutes Gordon Parks; plus shows on the politics of place and the rise and fall of apartheid.

Lindsay Comstock.

Gear

65

Editor's Choice

Point of Entry.

Canon introduces the EOS Rebel -T4i, a welcome update to its gateway SLR.

Steve Morgenstern.

66

New Stuff

The Goods

A bag, a laptop, a strap, a lens, a phone, a monitor and a camera. Get your shop on.

68

Hands on

The Little Camera That Could.

Sony's Cyber-shot RX100 pushes the compact market to new heights.

Stan Horaczek.