

AMERICAN PHOTO

CONTENIDO

VOLUME 24 No. 3, MAY/JUNE 2013

FEATURES

- 28 A Visual Feast
One of the world's top food photographers on how to shoot like a chef.
Marcus Nilsson.
- 36 War Through a Woman's Eyes
Some of today's best conflict photojournalists happen to be female. Does it make a difference?
Aimee Baldrige.
- 46 Team Works
Meet four fantastic duos for whom photographic partnership spells success.
Lori Fredrickson.
- 54 Living with Photographs
An editor, book designer, and art lover explains how and why to collect.
Michelle Dunn Marsh.

On the Cover

Husband-and-wife photographers Mark Williams and Sara Hirakawa collaborated on this shot for a 2012 swimsuit guide in Lucky.

DEPARTMENTS

- 08 Editor's Note
Art and Commerce.
There's a photo I want to buy.
Miriam Leuchter.

Focus

- 11 One to Watch
Everyday Marvels.

Irina Rozovsky captures ordinary life in places that carry the weight of history.

John Mahoney.

18

Alternate Take

Meeting by the Lake.

A photojournalist's path takes an unlikely detour into musical collaboration.

Michelle Bogre.

20

Books

Hido's Seeking.

Todd Hido journeys into time; David Maisel reveals ruined landscapes; Mark Laita sees beauty in snakes; 39 photographers tell war stories.

Jack Crager.

24

On The Wall

Dreams & Screams.

Miles Aldridge's cinematic nightmares, Mike Brodie's vagabond adventures, Bill Brandt's return to the spotlight, and more.

Lindsay Comstock.

Gear

61

Camera Review

Promise fulfilled.

Panasonic's Lumix DMC-GH3 may be the best ILC for today's pro photographer.

Stan Horaczek.

64

New Stuff

The Goods.

Hot new tools from Canon, Nikon, Wacom, and more.

68

Hands on

Prime for pros.

The long-awaited Zeiss 135mm f/2 lens arrives.

Stan Horaczek

72

Parting Shot

The surreal World.

Fashion photographer Thierry Van Biesen embraces whimsy after a childhood in war.

Jill C. Shomer