

AMERICAN PHOTO

CONTENIDO

VOLUME 24 No. 4, MAY /JUNE 2014

FEATURES

- 26 Ripple Effect
Following Chernobyl's devastating wake through generations.
Gerard Ludwing.
- 34 Erwitt at Work
The king of photographic wit takes our questions-generations.
Michael Kaplan.
- 42 Legends in the Field
Five masters magazines celebrate the alternative, the DIY, and the hipster (but don't call in that). Their photography follows the same ethos.
Lindsay Comstock.
- 54 Pioneers of the Good Life
A crop lifestyle magazines celebrate the alternative, the DIY, and the hipster (but don't call it that). Their photography follows the same ethos.
Lindsay Comstock.

On the Cover

Elliott Erwitt photographed playwright Arthur Miller in New York in 1954, but the image looks like it could have been made just yesterday.

DEPARTMENTS

- 8 Editor's Note
Present Tense.
Photography at a crossroads.
Miriam Luchter.
- 11 One To Watch
Paradox Viewer.
From different sides of the genre divide, Zack Seckler finds his own middle road.
Jack Crager.

- 14 Work in Progress
War Torn.
Brian McCarty replicates the lives of children surrounded by conflict.
Michelle Bogre.
- 16 Books
Asia Minor.
Harajuku fashionistas get a bin-girl book; Stephen Shore roams the Holy Land; Winn Bullock is a revelation; John Cry finds the art in developer trays (you remember developer trays, right?).
Jack Crager.
- 20 On The Wall
Interior Portraits.
Jen Davis's revealing self-explorations; Richard Renaldi's Touching Strangers; Caleb Cain Marcus's ice portraits; a survey of African American beauty plus Amish, Adams, Bull Durham, and more Tema Stauffer.
- Gear
- 61 Hands On
Good to go
Fujifilm's rugged X-T1 begs to be taken outside.
Philip Ryan.
- 62 New Stuff
The Goods
Serious photographic tools of all shapes and sizes.
- 64 Trend
Bigger Gets Better.
A new crop of medium-format sensors arrives this spring.
Russell Hart.
- 70 Parting Shot
Rochester Reverie.
Rebecca Norris Webb and Alex Webb bring Koda-chrome back to its birthplace.
Jill C. Shomer.