

SCIENRIFRIC

CONTENIDO

No. 67, MAY-JUNE 2010

FEACTURES

- 6 The ocean covers over 70 per cent of the Earth's surface.
- 8 The chip used in Wi-Fi was invented in Australia by a team of scientists at CSIRO.
- 10 There are two moons in our solar system that are larger than the planet Mercury.
- 12 Adelaide Zoo sold a bag of panda poo to a local panda lover for $2100!
- 18 About 4.6 billion years ago, lumps of rock in the swirling disk of gas and combined to form Earth.
- 24 Leaves are green because they contain lots of a green pigment [colour] called chlorophyll [KLOR-oh fill].

Hands-on activities

- 22 Drawing Resistance.
- 24 Autumn Leaf Display.
- 27 Pyramid Puzzle.
- 28 Space Junk.

COVER IMAGE

Look inside the body of a dancer. There are over 600 muscles in our bodies, ranging from the huge muscles of our bottoms to the tiny muscles in our eyelids. Story on page 14.

- 36 Puzzles.
- 37 Crossword.
- 38 Competitions and free.
- 39 Kids bits.