

DV MAGAZINE

CONTENIDO

VOLUME. 18, No. 8 AUGUST 2010

UPDATE

- 6 News & Notes
Sony XDCAM braves the cold for Ice Road Truckers, being creative with corporate video, checking out an array of the latest LED production monitors, and more.

IN REVIEW

- 13 Adobe: Lightroom 3.
Organizing and modifying stills and video is easier with the right tools.
Oliver Peters.
- 14 Panasonic: AG-HPX370.
This new mid-range P2 camcorder exceeds expectations.
Jay Holben.
- 15 Sound Devices: 552 Portable Mixer.
This fine field unit will make a great addition to your audio arsenal.
Jay Holben.
- 18 Adobe: Premiere Pro CS5.
If you liked Premiere Pro before, then you'll really love the CS5 version.
Oliver Peters.
- 21 Automatic Duck: Pro Import AE 5.0.
Upgrade offers twists that are hard to beat.
Oliver Peters.

FEATURES

- 22 Canon EOS5D Mk II Domination.
Shooting a stylishly unsettling music video for the band Carbon 9.
Jon Silberg.
- 24 DSLR Secrets of the Stars.
Third-party software will help optimize your DSLR-short HD video.
Iain Stasukevich.
- 26 In the Wild, Man.
Shooting The Outdoorsman in remote locations is a constant challenge for

Buck McNeely.
Iain Stasukevich.

COLUMNS

20

INSTANT EXPERT.

Ned Soltz Checks out 10 pint-sized HD cameras.

42

PRODUCTION DIARY.

Never say “impossible,” says Stefan Sargent, who knows from personal experience.

On our Cover

In Argentina, Buck McNeely stands by his Panasonic AG-HDX900, powered by an Anton/bauer Dionic battery.