

DV MAGAZINE

CONTENIDO

VOLUME. 19 No.8 AUGUST 2011

UPDATE

- 6 News & Notes.
Linstrom chooses Ashtler for Nat Geo shoot, OConnor Ultimate 1030 D, Red Giant Magic Bullet Suite 11, Hess gets sporty with Norbert, East Pleasant Pictures chooses Canon, Panasonic 3DA1 goes to space, Hitachi enrolls at NSU, GenArts releases Sapphire Edge.

IN REVIEW

- 12 Apple Final Cut Pro X.
Is this app ready for primetime?
Oliver Peters.
- 18 Litepanels MicroPro Hybrid.
This portable, battery-powered fixture does double-duty as an on-camera flash.
Jay Holben.
- 19 Vinten Vision blue Tripod.
This system offers “perfect balance” and an all important illuminated bubble level.
Chuck Gloman.
- 22 Ikan VL7.
A cost-effective and compact solution for monitoring video.
Carl Mrozek.

FEATURES

- 24 No Reservations with Sony’s F3.
Videographer Zach Zamboni is shooting two Anthony Bourdain Travel Channel shows—No Reservations and Layover— with Panavised Sony PMW-F3 cameras.
Jon Silberg.

COLUMNS

26

Instant Expert.

Ned Slotz looks at on-board recorders.

28

DV 101.

Jay Holben considers a few more factors important when choosing a lens.

34

Production Diary.

Stefan Sargent remembers his first video camera purchase.

On our Cover

Apple released Final Cut Pro X on June 21. Oliver Peters takes a look inside.